November 17, 2016
10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

ARRIVAL

You may begin arriving at 9:00am to go through security procedures and be escorted to the meeting room. The forum will begin promptly at 10am. We will have a number of guests attending the meeting, and we will appreciate your cooperation and patience in entering and exiting the facility.

SECURITY PROCEDURES

Due to necessary security measures only individuals who have pre-registered for an event will be admitted. All visitors undergo the Federal Reserve security screening procedures. Upon entering the first floor lobby entrance of the building, your belongings will be screened by an X-ray machine and you will be asked to walk through a metal detector. Both you and your belongings are subject to search at the discretion of the Federal Reserve Law Enforcement Unit. Weapons and cameras/other video equipment are not allowed on the premises.

After the security screening, you will need to stop by the officer's desk and provide law enforcement with the name of the event you are attending or the name of the Bank employee that is hosting your visit. Law enforcement will ask you for your driver's license or another valid form of photo identification.
